

AYO'S AWESOME ADVENTURES IN Cape Town

Join Ayo on an adventure. Ayo is an aardvark, an African mammal that eats ants and termites, and also a tour guide traveling the world. Read Ayo's Awesome Adventures in Cape Town: Mother City to learn more!

What did you learn?

QUESTIONS

1. Many people traveled to the Victoria & Alfred Waterfront in ...
 - a. The 1900's
 - b. The 1700's
 - c. The 1800's
 - d. The 1600's
2. Faraway neighborhoods are called ...
 - a. Suburbs
 - b. Townships
 - c. Ghettos
 - d. Cities
3. You know you're in Bo-Kaap when you see ...
 - a. Brick streets
 - b. Daisy-lined paths
 - c. Dirt paths
 - d. Cobblestone streets
4. Cape Town has ...
 - a. 72 beaches
 - b. 43 beaches
 - c. 60 beaches
 - d. 54 beaches
5. What currency is used in South Africa?
6. What is the closest living relative to the rock hyrax - a hamster or an elephant?

TRUE OR FALSE?

- | | | | |
|-------|---|-------|---|
| _____ | 1. A peninsula is an area of land surrounded by water. | _____ | 4. The Castle of Good Hope is the oldest colonial building. |
| _____ | 2. The waterfront is named after Queen Victoria of Great Britain. | _____ | 5. Nearly all Capetonians are descendants of slaves. |
| _____ | 3. South Africa loves the sport ice hockey. | _____ | 6. Capetonians enjoy many different cultures. |

ANSWERS

- 1. c. The 1800's. According to section "Victoria & Alfred Waterfront" on page 12, we know that "It was crowded in the late 1800's." So, the correct answer is C.
- 2. b. Townships. According to section "District Six Museum" on page 22, we know that "Families and friends who had lived in District Six for many years were sent to separate, sometimes faraway neighborhoods, called townships." So, the correct answer is B.
- 3. d. Cobblestone streets. According to section "Bo-Kaap" on page 26, we know that "You'll know we've reached Bo-Kaap when you start to walk on bumpy cobblestone streets." So, the correct answer is D.
- 4. a. 72 beaches. According to section "Beaches" on page 36, we know that "Would you believe Cape Town has 72 beaches?" So, the correct answer is A.
- 5. According to page 7, the name of the money in South Africa is the rand.
- 6. According to page 9, the closest living relative to the rock hyrax is the elephant.

TRUE OR FALSE? ANSWERS

- 1. True. According to section "Table Mountain" on page 9, we know that "A peninsula is an area of land almost surrounded by water." So, the correct answer is True.
- 2. True. According to section "Victoria & Alfred Waterfront" on page 13, we know that "The waterfront is named after Queen Victoria of Great Britain." So, the correct answer is True.
- 3. False. According to section "Sports" on page 16, we know that "South Africa is a nation that loves sports. In Cape Town, football brings out the biggest crowds." So, the correct answer is False.
- 4. True. According to section "Castle of Good Hope" on page 19, we know that "The castle is the oldest colonial building in South Africa!" So, the correct answer is True.
- 5. False. According to section "Spin Street & Slave Lodge" on page 25, we know that "Almost half of Capetonians are descendants (children over many generations) of enslaved people from Africa." So, the correct answer is False.
- 6. True. According to section "Let's eat!" on page 28, we know that "Capetonians enjoy many cultures and flavors." So, the correct answer is True.