

AYO'S AWESOME ADVENTURES IN Rabat

Join Ayo on an adventure. Ayo is an aardvark, an African mammal that eats ants and termites, and also a tour guide traveling the world. Read Ayo's Awesome Adventures in Rabat: Capital of Morocco to learn more!

What did you learn?

QUESTIONS

1. The Andalusian Wall was built in ...
  - a. The 1800's
  - b. The 1700's
  - c. The 1600's
  - d. The 1900's
2. Morocco gained its independence from France in ...
  - a. 1956
  - b. 1945
  - c. 1966
  - d. 1932
3. Salé is known for its ...
  - a. River
  - b. Traditional markets
  - c. Food
  - d. Souks
4. The Rabat Zoo's specialty is ...
  - a. Small animals
  - b. Exotic cats
  - c. Reptiles of Australia
  - d. Animals of Africa
5. The flag of Morocco shows a five-pointed green star on what color background?
6. What is a kasbah?

TRUE OR FALSE?

- |  |  |
|--|--|
| _____ 1. Bab is the Arabic word for God.                        | _____ 4. The floor in the Archaeology Museum is marble.  |
| _____ 2. Herbs, date palms, and fruits grow in the Andalusian Gardens. | _____ 5. People in Morocco are Hindus.   |
| _____ 3. Fezzes are common in Morocco.                                 | _____ 6. Yacoub el Mansour Square is the remains of what was meant to be the world's largest mosque. |

ANSWERS

- 1. c. The 1600's. According to section "Walls and gates" on page 8, we know that "It was built during the 1600's." So, the correct answer is C.
- 2. a. 1956. According to section "Ville Nouvelle" on page 22, we know that "Morocco has had a king since it gained independence from France in 1956." So, the correct answer is A.
- 3. b. Traditional markets. According to section "Salé" on page 38, we know that "Salé is known for the traditional markets in its medina." So, the correct answer is B.
- 4. d. Animals of Africa. According to section "Rabat Zoo" on page 42, we know that "The name of the zoo is Jardin Zoologique de Rabat. This zoo's specialty is animals of Africa." So, the correct answer is D.
- 5. According to page 7, the flag of Morocco "features a five-pointed green star on a red background." So, the correct answer is red.
- 6. According to page 46, a kasbah is a fortress in a North African city.

TRUE OR FALSE? ANSWERS

- 1. False. According to section "Walls and gates" on page 10, we know that "Bab is an Arabic word for gate." So, the correct answer is False.
- 2. True. According to section "Andalusian Gardens" on page 15, we know that "What grows here? Date palms, lemon, banana, and orange trees." So, the correct answer is True.
- 3. True. According to section "Medina" on page 17, we know that "Find a fez to wear! It's a tall, red cap with a tassel, common in Morocco." So, the correct answer is True.
- 4. False. According to section "Archaeological Museum" on page 26, we know that "On the floor is a mosaic, a picture made of tiny colored tiles." So, the correct answer is False.
- 5. False. According to section "Mosques of Rabat" on page 32, we know that "Many people in Morocco are Muslims." So, the correct answer is False.
- 6. True. According to section "Hassan Tower and Mosque" on page 36, we know that "These columns are the remains of what was meant to be one of the world's largest mosques." So, the correct answer is True.