

AYO'S AWESOME ADVENTURES IN Sydney

Join Ayo on an adventure. Ayo is an aardvark, an African mammal that eats ants and termites, and also a tour guide traveling the world. Read Ayo's Awesome Adventures in Sydney: Harbor City to learn more!

What did you learn?

QUESTIONS

1. Sydney's oldest neighborhood is called ...
  - a. The Old Neighborhood
  - b. The Center
  - c. The Rocks
  - d. The Pub
2. The Sydney Harbour Bridge is also called ...
  - a. The Slide
  - b. The Coathanger
  - c. The Pylon Path
  - d. The Ferry
3. On Sydney's northern coast there is a suburb called ...
  - a. Bravelly
  - b. Hairy
  - c. Manly
  - d. Plucky
4. A popular meal at Sydney Fish Market is ...
  - a. Fish and chips
  - b. Shrimp and crepes
  - c. Canned tuna
  - d. Seafood cereal
5. How many stars are on the Australian flag?
6. Sydney Opera House was opened in what year - 1873 or 1973?

TRUE OR FALSE?

- |                                                                                       |                                                         |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------|
| _____ 1. Sydney began as a penal colony .                                      | _____ 4. The Blue Mountains are blue.                   |
| _____ 2. The Sydney Harbour Bridge is one of the world's longest single-span bridges. | _____ 5. A favorite Australian sport is called "footy." |
| _____ 3. Aboriginal artists make a kind of art called speckle sketches .       | _____ 6. There aren't many beaches in Sydney.           |

ANSWERS

- 1. c. The Rocks. According to section "The Rocks" on page 12, we know that "Sydney's oldest neighborhood is called The Rocks." So, the correct answer is C.
- 2. b. The Coathanger. According to section "Sydney Harbour Bridge" on page 18, we know that "Close to the Sydney Opera House is the Sydney Harbour Bridge. I've overheard Sydneysiders call it the Coathanger." So, the correct answer is B.
- 3. c. Manly. According to section "Manly" on page 40, we know that you can "take a ferry ride to a nearby suburb on Sydney's northern coast. It's called Manly." So, the correct answer is C.
- 4. a. Fish and chips. According to section "Sydney Fish Market" on page 29, we know that "Fish and chips (fried fish and French fries) is a favorite meal here." So, the correct answer is A.
- 5. Six. According to page 7, the flag includes "five stars that represent the constellation called the Southern Cross, and a large star for Australia's states and territories." So, the answer is six.
- 6. According to page 17, the "opera house opened in 1973."

TRUE OR FALSE? ANSWERS

- 1. True. According to section "Museum of Sydney" on page 9, we know that "Sydney began as a penal colony." So, the correct answer is True.
- 2. True. According to section "Sydney Harbour Bridge" on page 19, we know that "The Sydney Harbour Bridge is one of the world's longest single-span bridges." So, the correct answer is True.
- 3. False. According to section "Art Gallery of New South Wales" on page 22, we know that "Some of Australia's Aboriginal artists make a kind of art called dot painting." So, the correct answer is False.
- 4. False. According to section "Sydney Tower Eye" on page 14, we know that "The Blue Mountains aren't really blue. But, from a distance, they look like they're in a blue haze or fog." So, the correct answer is False.
- 5. True. According to section "Sports in Sydney" on page 34, we know that "A favorite Australian sport is called Australian rules football. The locals call it 'Aussie rules,' or 'footy.'" So, the correct answer is True.
- 6. False. According to section "Beaches" on page 38, we know that "There are lots of places to catch a wave in Sydney." So, the correct answer is False.