

HELLO, BEAUTIFUL!

Water Animals

Water Animals introduces some of the spectacular animals that dive, splash, and paddle through the world's oceans, lakes, and rivers.

What did you learn?

QUESTIONS

- The colors of the Wilson's storm-petrel's feathers are ...
 - Red and black
 - White and gray
 - Black and white
 - They're all brown
- The colors of the anemone are ...
 - Red, blue, yellow, or green
 - Pink, blue, green, or red
 - White, orange, red, or yellow
 - Blue, purple, gray, or pink
- The animals that live in the water, but aren't fish are ...
 - Great white shark and dolphin
 - Stingray and potato cod
 - Octopus and trout
 - Bryde's whale and dolphin
- The animal that can reach over 21 feet is a ...
 - Octopus
 - Great white shark
 - Bryde's whale
 - Dolphin
- What does the leatherback sea turtle shown in the book have on its back?
- How many arms does an octopus have?

TRUE OR FALSE?

- | | |
|---|--|
| _____ 1. Bottlenose dolphins are smart, frowning animals. | _____ 4. Bryde whales aren't found in water colder than 59 °F. |
| _____ 2. Octopus can squirt ink. | _____ 5. Leatherback turtles chiefly eat jellyfish. |
| _____ 3. Adélie penguins live in Antarctica. | _____ 6. Potato cods have light spots on their body. |

ANSWERS

- 1. c. Black and white. According to the section "Bird" on page 6, we know that "Your feathers are black. There are white feathers in a line across your tail." So, the correct answer is C.
- 2. b. Pink, blue, green, or red. According to the section "Sea anemone" on page 18, we know that "You may be pink, blue, green, or red." So, the correct answer is B.
- 3. d. Bryde's whale and dolphin. According to the section "Dolphin" and "Whale" on page 7, we know that "You swim in the water like a fish, but you are not a fish" and "Like a dolphin, you are not a fish." So, the correct answer is D.
- 4. b. Great white sharks. According to the section "Picture Key" on page 31, we know that "They can grow to more than 21 feet in length." So, the correct answer is B.
- 5. In the photo on page 21, the leatherback sea turtle has sand from the beach on its back.
- 6. According to page 14, octopus have eight arms.

TRUE OR FALSE? ANSWERS

- 1. False. According to the section "Dolphin" on page 11, we know that "You are a smart, smiling animal." So, the correct answer is False.
- 2. True. According to the section "Octopus" on page 14, we know that "You can squirt an inky liquid to hide yourself!" So, the correct answer is True.
- 3. True. According to the section "Picture Key" on page 30, we know that "The Adélie penguin lives in Antarctica." So, the correct answer is True.
- 4. True. According to the section "Picture Key" on page 31, we know that "It is not found in waters that are colder than 59 °F." So, the correct answer is True.
- 5. True. According to the section "Picture Key" on page 31, we know that "Leatherbacks chiefly eat jellyfish." So, the correct answer is True.
- 6. False. According to the section "Cod" on page 8, we know that "The dark spots on your body are shaped a bit like potatoes." So, the correct answer is False.