

LEARNING LADDERS

Animal Homes

In Animal Homes, learn about different kinds of animal homes, from underground tunnels to tree houses, shells, and more.

What did you learn?

QUESTIONS

1. A mole's underground tunnel is called a ...
 - a. Den
 - b. Cave
 - c. Burrow
 - d. Tunnel
2. A baby duck is called a ...
 - a. Duckling
 - b. Chick
 - c. Tiny duck
 - d. Ducklette
3. Beaver lodges are held together by ...
 - a. Glue
 - b. Mud
 - c. Cement
 - d. Smaller sticks
4. Goldfish live in a ...
 - a. Cage
 - b. Stable
 - c. Lodge
 - d. Tank
5. Storks sometimes build their nest on top of what?
6. Do squirrels live in trees or underground?

TRUE OR FALSE?

- | | | | |
|-------|---|-------|--|
| _____ | 1. In the summer, bears stay in their cave. | _____ | 4. Honey bees tend to live alone. |
| _____ | 2. Woven twigs and grass can make a nest firm and strong. | _____ | 5. When a snail is frightened, it pulls its head into its shell. |
| _____ | 3. Nothing can live on a mossy log. | _____ | 6. Horses spend all of their time in a stable. |

ANSWERS

- 1. c. Burrow. According to section "Holes and tunnels" on page 4, we know that "A mole's underground tunnel is called a burrow." So, the correct answer is C
- 2. a. Duckling. According to section "Birds' nest" on page 14, we know that "A baby duck is called a duckling." So, the correct answer is A.
- 3. b. Mud. According to section "Lodges" on page 18, we know that "Sticky brown mud holds the branches firmly together." So, the correct answer is B.
- 4. d. Tank. According to section "Pets' homes" on page 22, we know that "Goldfish dart around and nibble on plants in a tank of fresh water." So, the correct answer is D.
- 5. According to page 15, a stork might build its nest on top of a chimney.
- 6. According to page 8, squirrels live in nests in trees.

TRUE OR FALSE? ANSWERS

- 1. False. According to section "Dens" on page 6, we know that "In winter, this bear stays in its cave." So, the correct answer is False.
- 2. True. According to section "Treehouses" on page 9, we know that "Woven twigs and grass make the nest firm and strong." So, the correct answer is True.
- 3. False. According to section "Logs and leaves" on page 10, we know that "All kinds of tiny creatures make their homes on a mossy log." So, the correct answer is False.
- 4. False. According to section "Hives and insect nests" on page 16, we know that "Honey bees live together too, in homes called hives." So, the correct answer is False
- 5. True. According to section "Shells" on page 21, we know that "When a snail is frightened, it pulls its head into its shell." So, the correct answer is True.
- 6. False. According to section "Pets' homes" on page 22, we know that "A horse rests in a stable, but it also enjoys being outside in a field, where it can gallop and eat grass." So, the correct answer is False.