

WELCOME TO READING

What a Doll!

In What a Doll!, learn about different dolls from cultures all around the world.

What did you learn?

QUESTIONS

- Dolls are usually made from ...
 - Sugar
 - Sticks and stones
 - Plastic or cloth
 - Metal
- Iroquois dolls were made from ...
 - Banana leaves
 - Rocks
 - Cornhusk
 - Coconuts
- Dolls from the Maasai people in Kenya are made from ...
 - Wood
 - Clay
 - Straw
 - Mud
- Japanese dolls are used ...
 - In meetings
 - As decoration
 - In gardens
 - In plays
- Do children all over the world play with dolls?
- Do both boys and girls have dolls?

TRUE OR FALSE?

- | | |
|--|--|
| _____ 1. Japanese dolls have different masks. | _____ 4. Dolls cannot be made from leaves. |
| _____ 2. In India, women may wear a long piece of cloth called a sari . | _____ 5. Russian dolls can stack inside of each other. |
| _____ 3. The doll from Samburu is made of wood. | _____ 6. You can't make a doll from anything. |

ANSWERS

- 1. c. Plastic or cloth. According to page 2, we know that "Your dolls are probably made out of plastic or cloth." So, the correct answer is C.
- 2. c. Cornhusk. According to page 4, we know that "The Iroquois used cornhusks to make dolls like this one." So, the correct answer is C.
- 3. a. Wood. According to page 6, we know that "Some dolls from the Maasai people in Kenya are made from wood." So, the correct answer is A.
- 4. d. In plays. According to page 10, we know that "In Japan, dolls are used in some plays." So, the correct answer is D.
- 5. Yes. According to page 1, children all over the world play with dolls.
- 6. Yes. According to page 16, boys and girls have dolls.

TRUE OR FALSE? ANSWERS

- 1. True. According to page 10, we know that "In Japan, dolls are used in some plays ... The dolls wear different masks for the different people they play." So, the correct answer is True.
- 2. True. According to page 9, we know that "A woman wears a long piece of cloth called a sari." So, the correct answer is True.
- 3. False. According to page 7, we know that "This doll is from Kenya, too. It is made from clay and then baked." So, the correct answer is False.
- 4. False. According to page 3, we know that "How about a doll made from a banana leaf? Dolls were made out of starfish and sea shells." So, the correct answer is False.
- 5. True. According to page 5, we know that "They come from Russia. They're made out of wood. The dolls are hollow. You can stack the dolls inside each other." So, the correct answer is True.
- 6. False. According to page 12, we know that "You can make one from almost anything. Cardboard tubes can be turned into wonderful dolls." So, the correct answer is False.